

Job & Career Coaching

„All knowledge is in vain without work. And all work is pointless without love.“

Khalil Gibran

Going new career paths, leaving old paths

What can and do I want to do professionally? Should I stay in my lane or can I break new grounds? Do I need further training? Is self-employment possible? Are my application documents appealing to employers?

These are some of the questions we explore with you and find answers to in our job coaching. Whether you want to create application documents, to know how to fully use your potential, or whether you need a business plan, we support & guide you every step of the way.

What makes the advice of our job coaches so unique? Our coaches are professionals from the field who led their own employees, held job interviews, hired & trained many people. From their own experience, they know what it means to change careers and to break new grounds.

What we do:

- 🐻 Create documents that appeal to employers (CVs, application letters etc.)
- 🐻 Profiling - Competence Analysis - Potential Analysis
- 🐻 Preparing you for interviews
- 🐻 Communication training and analysis of non-verbal communication (body language, pitch)
- 🐻 Job acquisition
